

West Valley Engineering

Prostar Staffing Services

West Valley Technology

Accountants Now!

Top 5 Best Careers in a Changing Economy

1. Engineers (all disciplines)

Engineers relate the concepts of science and mathematics to create economical solutions to technical problems. Engineering consists of a wide scope of different fields ranging from Electrical, Biomedical, Computer, and Mechanical. According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, engineering jobs are expected to increase to 1,671,000 by 2016.

2. Computer Application Software Engineers

Computer Software Engineers incorporate computer science and mathematical analysis to the design, development, testing, and evaluation of computer software. Computer software engineers are expected to grow and add the most new jobs as well as increase by 46 percent by the year 2012 according to Career Explorer.

3. Database Administrators

Their responsibilities include being familiar with every aspect of the company's database system such as the modification, performance, security and the system's platform. According to Career Explorer, Database administrators are anticipated to be amid the fastest growing careers increasing to 44% through the year 2012.

4. Product Marketing Managers

Product managers are in the forefront due to businesses increasing their pursuit for customers. They develop, manage, and promote specific products. The job praises creativity and business sense. According to Yahoo! Education, Product Marketing Manager positions are projected to grow of 21% through 2016.

5. Accountants

Accountants and auditors help to ensure that organizations' public records are kept accurately, are run efficiently, and its taxes paid promptly. Accounting positions rank among the top five open positions in the U.S. According to DeVry University, employment of accountants and auditors is expected to grow 27% or more through the year 2014.

StaffingMadeSimple

PLACE A JOB ORDER TODAY! | www.westvalley.com